About Us: We make creative adventures come to life. We are located in the heart of Northern Nevada. We offer and create an environment that truly inspires our little ones and each other to create, explore, experience and play daily. We also offer community gatherings for families and parents. Check out our full list of offerings! You're sure to find something you haven't tried before.

Our Creative Adventure Studio: We are a creative adventure studio located in the heart of Northern Nevada. We offer an environment that truly inspires our little ones and each other to create, explore, experience and play daily. We also offer community gatherings for families and parents. Check out our full list of happenings at the studio! You're sure to find something you haven't tried before.

Our Party Room: We offer a party room that is thoughtfully designed to blend fun and sophisticated. Exposed brick, natural wood, and bistro lighting create an unforgettable atmosphere and experience.

Creative Adventure Studio Parties: If you're looking for a space that truly captures the essence of a special and unique birthday party experience, it's at Cotton Candy Clouds. Our parties include full private use of our entire creative adventure studio, and party room, and personalized chalk wall. Our drink cooler will be stocked with ice, just bring your own drinks and food! Full setup and cleanup is included, along with The CCC Team to keep the party flowing and fun! Enjoy your choice of a themed art or science project, included up to 12 kids. The studio can accommodate up to 24 kids per birthday party. Our evening parties can be pretend slumber parties, where we create all the slumber party fun, without the overnight!

Bubbles & Bunnies Bringing the Snuggle Farm to You

What's included:

- 5 Bunnies
- Bunny Snuggles, interactive play and holding
- Bubbles

$100

$200 Cottontail Castle Bunny Experience

 Fun things to know about Bunnies:

✨ Petting a bunny reduces stress. There are quite a few scientific studies demonstrating that just watching an animal reduces cortisol, the stress hormone, and increases serotonin, the happy molecule. Snuggling up with a bunny can even lower blood pressure!

✨ Bunnies are entertaining. Have you ever seen a bunny binky? It's not only amazing, it's adorable too. Bunnies are intelligent; they can learn tricks and play games.

✨ They may be small, but they have BIG personalities. Bunnies can be sweet, friendly, sassy, energetic, goofy and a little bit of everything. You'll be surprised at how much personality, attitude and spunk your bunny will have!

✨ Bunnies make wonderful companions. They will make you smile when you're down, they will listen when you need to talk, and they'll snuggle you when you need a friend. Who knows? You may even get a few kisses!

Ponies: Mac & Moonshine

Let's pony up your party! Mac is a mini palomino, loves to be brushed and roll in the dirt after a bath! Moonshine is a mini paint, loves to whinny, and go for walks around the neighborhood. He's a fancy stallion and likes to show off his surfer blond hair. Mac & Moonshine are available for any special birthday party or celebration! They love to show off their manes with colors, flowers and mystical unicorn characters. They also love to dress in costume for any themed event. Attention is the name of the game, and these boys love it.
